Japheth Hounsell enlisted in the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, World War I, No. 2110. He received the Military Medal for his actions on April 14, 1917 at Monchy-le-Preux. Initially a Private, and a Regimental Signaler, he was a Lance Corporal at the time of his death in 1918. His name is on one of three bronze tablets at the monument in Beaumont Hamel Memorial Park, nine miles directly north of the town of Albert, France. The inscription reads that he was killed in action near Neuve-Eglise on the 13th April, 1918. He was killed instantly by a bullet through the head, at Bailleul, France, according to Anthony McAllister in his 2011 book, The Greatest Gallantry. His remains are "Known unto God".

A chapter in "The Fighting Newfoundlander", by Col. G.W.L. Nicholson, C.D., describes the Battle of Monchy-le-Preux, and the role played by a small band of Newfoundlanders, one of whom was Pte. Japheth Hounsell.

Anthony McAllister's 2011 book "The Greatest Gallantry" gives much detail on the Newfoundland Regiment, especially the battle at Monchy-le-Preux on April 14, 1917. Private Japheth Hounsell was one of the Newfoundlanders who survived this disastrous battle, and he was one of a group of ten, nine Newfoundlanders and one from the Essex Regiment, who saved the day and prevented the Germans from re-taking the town of Monchy-le-Preux. It was for his role in their brave stand at "The Hedge" that Japheth received the Military Medal.

Japheth was working at the Paper Mill in Grand Falls. At the age of 24, he left his job and joined the Newfoundland Regiment. His attestation papers were dated February 23, 1916. Four months later, on July 21, 1916, he joined the regiment in France, twenty days after the battle of Beaumont Hamel.

She married MR. ISRAEL EZRA VINCENT 04 Jan 1916 in Cape Island, Newfoundland, son of JOHN VINCENT and FRANCES HUTCHINGS. He was born 28 Feb 1889 in Cape Island, Newfoundland, and died 02 May 1970 in Valleyfield, Newfoundland.

Notes for ELSIE DINSMORE STRATTON:

Elsie's Baptism Certificate stated her place of birth as North West Arm (three words). It had not yet been re-named to Valleyfield.

Elsie and Ezra lived on Cape Island, and reared nine children there. Elsie ran the post office for 25 years until it closed in 1952, when the town was resettled. Elsie and Ezra then moved to Valleyfield, Bonavista Bay.

Elsie died at age 95 years and 5 days, at Brookfield Hospital at 3:30AM, just five days after celebrating her 95th birthday. Her grandson, Rex Gibbons, has the special set of furniture that she and Ezra obtained shortly after their marriage (love seat and four chairs).

When Elsie gave birth to her twins, Frank and Milly, on 26 Sep 1926, she was attended to by Dr. W. A. Pullins, M.D., C.M., who was then based out of Newtown, Bonavista Bay. An invoice was prepared for Mr. Israel Vincent, Cape Island, dated Nov 1st, 1926, for "Confinement ... $8.00" for this service, with a note written on it, "Please try to meet bill within four or five days to Mrs Pullins". Written across the face of the invoice was "Paid with thanks, Nov 4th". For all her earlier and later children, Elsie was only attended by the local midwife.

In December, 2008, son Frank had an interesting piece of information on the cost of Elsie's funeral, as follows:

Casket and Burial	$5534.00
Stone	2474.63
Cemetery Fund	250.00

Cement and Lumber	195.66
Mixer, Stone and Gas	36.00

Total Cost	$8764.89

Notes for MR. ISRAEL EZRA VINCENT:

On the Baptism Certificate, his name was recorded as only "Israel". However, at the time of his marriage to Elsie Stratton in 1916, his name was recorded as "Ezra".

Ezra was business manager of the FPU (Fishermen's Protective Union) store at Cape Island for almost twenty-five years. He also operated a cod liver oil refinery there as part of the business until Cape Island was resettled in 1952. Joseph Stagg, Marge's grandfather, worked in the refinery for him.

Ezra, Elsie and family moved to Valleyfield in the Spring, 1952, before resettlement of Cape Island started in the Fall, 1952.

In 1950, Ezra suffered from bad headaches for about a year which were diagnosed as a brain tumor (he used to take about a dozen aspirin tablets per day for the pain). In March, 1951, he was taken to a Montreal neurological hospital for treatment. An airplane landed on the ice at Cape Pond near Cape Cove (and Ezra was brought down from Cape Island on horse and sleigh). Ted Vincent accompanied him to Montreal, where he had a benign tumor removed from his brain. Ezra returned to Cape Island in May, 1951. He lived for another 19 years, and had no further recurrence of the problem. During his illness, his son, Alfred, took over management of the FPU business.

Upon marriage, he resigned as a teacher and joined his wife in a general business at Pound Cove, during which he was also connected with the Labrador fishery. Later, he took time off from business to do a year's study at Memorial College.

In 1946, he was elected unopposed to the National Convention as the representative for Bonavista North. He was an early and ardent supporter of Confederation and was put at the head of a list of dedicated Confederates by former Premier J.R. Smallwood and campaigned from Gambo to St. Anthony, visiting every large settlement on the coast.

On January 1, 1950, Mr. Vincent was appointed a member of the Board of Liquor Control, being appointed deputy commissioner in 1967.

"Cape Island Sands recollection", a poem by S.F. (Ted) Vincent, which appeared in the St. John's Evening Telegram, Saturday, January 25, 1975.

Cape Island Sands we loved so much,
Pond the horses swam,
To walk to Owl Hill it was such ---
As boys and girls we'd jump and run;
Which brought us pleasure and much fun.

From Cape Island

To Cobbler's Island near our land,
Then out to Cobbler's we would track,
And then ride on the horse's back.

Cape Island Main we did adore,
The sands we'd always visit more,
Cape Island Beach our friends we'd greet,
As boys we walked with naked feet.

Coach Island on Cape Island Pond,
We, every winter, loved so fond,
On the ice we used our winter slide,
And many times we'd ride and ride.

Outside the Cape not far away,
Gull Island stands and looks so gay,
This sandy beach we called "the main",
We'd even stroll in wind and rain.

Cape Island Beach brought birds galore,
We with our gun stood on the shore;
The turrs and seaducks came so fast,
And with our guns but few got past.

The Vincents, Andrews and the Whites,
The boys and girls who loved the sights,
The level sands we'd always reach,
And walk and stroll along the beach.
Rome.

In the early years we'd never miss,
Our Vincent artist, just the best;
He came from our Cape Island home,
Painted the English king and the Pope of

We strolled the beach and walked the side,
High water time we'd have a ride;
The boats we'd row up to the hill,
And bring fresh water from the well.

Cape Island seas ring in my ears---
I hear them from forgotten years;
The surf breaks on the lovely main;
I listen as it roars again.

So lovely was Cape Island Pond,
The boats we used were truly fond,
High water mark the pond would fill,
And then we'd sail up to Owl Hill.

So I have many things to tell,
To write our background which I will,
This year and every year I stand
And walk along Cape Island sand.

Notes for MRS. NITA MILDRED VINCENT:

Born on Cape Island, Newfoundland.

On October 1st, 1945, she married Clayton Gibbons of Lumsden South, Newfoundland. She served as the postmaster at Lumsden for 31 years, from 1952 to 1983. Her hobbies are crocheting and knitting. She also enjoyed travelling. She was an active volunteer in the United Church as well as with Bonnews Senior Citizens Home, Badger's Quay, Newfoundland. In January, 2007, she moved to the Meadow Creek Retirement Home, Paradise, Newfoundland.

In the latter part of June, 1939, Nita made her first trip to St. John's. She left Cape Island on the mail boat / passenger boat to Gambo, run by Bob Parsons of Newtown. From there, she went to St. John's by train. That summer, she did "summer school" teacher training. In St. John's, she stayed with Uncle Tom and Aunt Amelia Vincent on Spencer Street, just around the corner from Memorial College Parade Street campus. She returned home to Cape Island at the end of the summer with her teaching licence, but did not get a school assignment for September.

Ivy Mehaney was teaching at Lumsden South in 1939, and when she married Harold Robbins that Fall, she resigned her position and Nita was hired to replace her. Nita remembered packing up her trunk at home at Cape Island and getting ready for her first teaching assignment. Her father, Ezra, got the horse ready, placed the trunk on the sleigh, and took Nita to Lumsden South about January 4th by horse and sleigh. She taught school at Lumsden South from January 5, 1940 to June, 1940. During this first year of teaching, she boarded with Hiram Gibbons and his wife, Lucy (a Humphries from Cape Cove). After the end of the school year, she again went to St. John's to do a second summer of teacher training at Memorial College. She again stayed with Uncle Tom and Aunt Amelia on Spencer Street; their daughters Dot, Greta and Floss (Betty) were still living at home. Nita finished the summer with her 2nd Grade Teaching Certificate, and a teaching job at Pound Cove.

Nita taught at Pound Cove from September, 1940 to June, 1941. There, she boarded with Ted and Nellie (Hounsell) Vincent. Ted was her cousin from Cape Island; he had married Nellie Hounsell of Pound Cove, and they ran a small retail store there.

One Friday in April (the 5th?), 1941, Nita left school in Pound Cove about 2:00 p.m., wearing her long rubber boots, and walked to Templeman to meet Olive Goodyear (from Lumsden South), who was teaching school there. They were going to walk to Lumsden South to attend the wedding of Harold Rideout and Lily Tippett. Gordon Blackmore (a first cousin of Harold) and Chesley Howell, both of Templeman, were going to walk with them. There was a lot of snow on the trail, and every step below Templeman to Carter's Brook, they were up to their knees in snow. The boys figured they'd never make it to Lumsden South that night by this trail, so they turned back and walked about half way out Newtown road to the trail that went down along shore. They followed this trail down over the Owl Hill (by-passed Nita's home at Cape Island), past Cape Cove and Northern Cove, then across Northern Bill to Brandy Cove and Windmill Bight beach. There, they crossed the bridge on Windmill Brook and continued on to Lumsden South. They reached Olive's home (Kenneth and Winnie Goodyear) about 9:00 p.m.. Aunt Winnie insisted that they have a cup of tea before they went to the wedding at Uncle Enslom and Aunt Kate's house. They also got out of their long boots and into more comfortable shoes. When they got to the wedding, there were only about a dozen people left. They stayed until about midnight and then went back to Olive's for the night. They spent Saturday and Saturday night in Lumsden, and on Sunday, retraced their tracks back to Templeman and Pound Cove.

The next two years, she taught at Cape Cove, from September, 1941, to June, 1943. During her two years at Cape Cove, she boarded her first year with Cecil and Carrie Hann, and finished the year with Grace Hann, widow of Tobias Hann; year two, she boarded with Jake and Dorcas Humphries until Mr. Humphries died in April, and finished that year with Lewis and Daisy Stokes. Mr. Humphries did woodwork, and at Christmas, 1942, gave Nita a special Christmas gift that he had handcrafted, a birch pastry board and rolling pin, the latter including carved initials. (Jacob had only one hand; he had lost the other as a result of a shooting accident.) In 1999, Nita still had these items at Lumsden. (The Grace Hann mentioned above later remarried Archibald Hall of Newtown.)

From September, 1943, to June, 1944, she taught at Bridgeport, Newfoundland. During that year, she boarded with Paul and Priscilla Small.

From September, 1944, to June, 1945, she was back teaching at Lumsden South. This year, she boarded with Chesley and Janet (Goodyear) Gibbons. Ches was a brother to her future husband, Clayton, who she married on October 1st, 1945.

In 1946, Maude Blackwood of Port Nelson was "in service" to Nita and Clayton, baby sitting Rex and helping in the summer fishery for $5 per month. In 1947 and 1948, her sister, Nita Blackwood, spent the summers with Nita and Clayton, who by now had Rex and Glenys. In later years, Letsie Hann Goodyear for several years and Myrtice Goodyear for six or seven years, worked with the family. Myrtice's husband, Baxter Tulk, was shareman with the fishing crew for the same period, including 1953, the year Clayton's father, Martin, died.

In 1952, there was going to be a post office opened in Lumsden South. Bertha Gibbons was expected to run it, but had some medical problems at the time and recommended that Ben Squires of "Canada Post" contact Nita Gibbons to see if she was interested. On November 11, 1952, Nita agreed to take on the role of Postmistress of Lumsden South for $10 per month. For the next 16 years she operated the post office from a small attachment on the Gibbons home. In 1968, there was finally a separate post office building constructed, by Cat Harbour Brook on the main street through town. Nita continued as postmistress there until her retirement in 1983.

He married ANNIE MABEL POND 02 Aug 1950, daughter of JOSEPH POND and LYDIA OSMOND. She was born 28 Aug 1932 in Greenspond, Newfoundland.

Notes for EARL CLAYTON VINCENT:

Earl worked with the provincial government for 32 years, and retired in 1987.

Earl Vincent and Annie Pond, before they married, both worked as employees at the Fishermen's Protective Union store at Greenspond.

For the two weeks or so before his fatal heart attack, Earl and Annie were parked in their camper on the Gander River, below the Glenwood Bridge. He caught a salmon a day or two before, his second for the summer (the other was at Big Falls on the Humber River earlier in the summer), and his first for 1999 on the Gander. Early on Sunday morning, July 25th, (just after midnight on Saturday night), Earl had a sharp pain in his chest, and asked Annie for one of his pills. He placed it under his tongue. Annie asked him to sit on the edge of the bunk while she went into the washroom. She was barely inside when she heard the thump of his falling to the floor. Friends in the camper parked nearby called the ambulance, which arrived in a few minutes from Gander. After arrival at Gander Hospital, the medical staff worked on him for a couple of minutes, with no success. Uncle Earl had died. He will now fish for salmon forever at the Big Falls in Heaven. By now, he is probably telling St. Peter how to tie a "blue charm", or a "pretty one", a couple of his favourite salmon flies.

In the winter / spring of 2009 when repair work was being done on the former Orange Association Lodge at Lumsden (now being used as a Senior Citizens Centre), the workers found an old envelope addressed to The Master, L. O. Lodge, Lumsden North, date-stamped Englee, February 15, 1960. On looking inside, they found a letter typed on February 13, 1960, at Englee, and signed by Earl C. Vincent, Brother & Sir Knight. Earl had been an active member of the Loyal Orange Association, and at this time, while he was working in Englee as a social worker, on behalf of the Members of Martin Lodge # 170 of Englee, he wrote letters to other lodges in the province seeking donations to help build a new lodge at Englee.

Notes for ANDY EARL KEITH VINCENT:

In his early career, Keith was in the I.T. business, first in Newfoundland, and then in Alberta, when he moved to Calgary from St. John's on December 6th, 1996. On June 20, 1998, Keith left Calgary, Alberta, for a position in the United Arab Emirates as Technical Production Manager with a computer company doing a contract there with the government. He returned to Calgary on August 1st. That company folded a few months later, and he returned to work at Compaq Canada in Calgary until February, 2001. He worked with Nortel until 2002, and then became a Realtor, which he still was as of 2009.

Notes for MICHAEL KELLY:

On a Good Friday in the mid 1980s, Rex and Marge were on the way home to Lumsden from St. John's in a Ford station wagon. Driving through Gamo, they broke down right near the railway track, right below Mike Kelly's house. Everything was closed for the day. Mike came along and sized up the problem, figured he knew what it was and where he could get a part off an old car nearby. He got the part, put it on, and everything worked like a charm. He was like a magician to Marge and the kids. While Mike and Rex were working on the repairs, they had gotten a ride down to Middle Brook, where they spent their waiting time visiting Mrs. Sam Hender, mother of Wilhelmina, wife of Gerald Peddle and friend for many years. Gerald and Wilhelmina used to babysit Kim in the late 1960s in St. John's while both were students there.

2008 Salmon fishing trip to Main Brook with Vince:

June 27: Drove as far as Grand Falls, spent the night at the Mount Peyton.

June 29: Caught fish again today. Vince also caught one at Beaver Brook, west of Roddickton.

June 30: Headed back via the north route. Stopped and fished Genevieve River for about 2 hours (sunny), then headed south. Horizontal rain hit us before we got to Torrent River. We visited the fish facility there, then headed down the coast. Rain flooded all the way. We checked into Deer Lake Motel for the night.

July 1: Drove up to Big Falls on the Humber River. Water very high from yesterday's rain. No luck with the fishing, so we headed east to Windmill Bight. Spent the night at the Cabin with Marge. A successful trip.

Notes for JOHN CYRIL HARTERY:

Jack, a Director of AIMS, retired in April, 2001, as President and General Manager of Stora Enso Port Hawkesbury Limited, the Nova Scotia subsidiary of the Swedish-Finnish forest industry giant, Stora Enso Oyj. Jack was recognized for his strong leadership and vision, and was responsible for securing for Port Hawkesbury the world's largest paper machine, which started up in 1998. The machine makes "supercalendered" paper, a semi-glossy paper used for magazines, catalogues and flyers. The project was, at $850 million, one of the largest industrial projects ever in Nova Scotia.

Besides being a seasoned papermaker and skilled industrialist, Jack's greatest strength was his people skills. He understood that successful industries need dedicated employees,, and he was a master at getting all members of his team working together.

Jack was also a strong supporter of community life in the Strait of Canso area, and more broadly in Nova Scotia as a whole. In recognition of this, and of his work at Stora Enso, the University College of Cape Breton awarded him an Honorary Doctorate. Notes for KIMBERLEY GLENYS GIBBONS:

Born in the Grace General Hospital, St. John's, Newfoundland, shortly after 5 P.M. on December 2, 1966. The doctor, Gerald Kean, told Rex to go home and get out of their way. As Rex was unlocking the door to the apartment at 313A Empire Avenue, the telephone was ringing. It was Dr. Kean saying, you have a baby girl, and you can come back now. It was a little different in 1966, and fathers did not normally attend to the mother during the birth process.

Baptised: St. James United Church, St. John's

Notes for GLENN KENNETH TEMPLEMAN:

When Glenn was born, his mother got to Brookfield Hospital from Lumsden, but Ralph was away on the schooner Carl Strong. Dr. McDonald told her she wasn't ready to have the baby that night, and that he'd be back to see her the next day. A few hours later, she told the nurse, Audrey Hatcher (Manning), then a young 25 year old nurse, that her water broke. Audrey checked her and said you're having your baby now, and they wheeled her down to the case room. One push later and out popped Glenn, 6 pounds and 2 ounces. From the hospital, they called Nita Gibbons at Lumsden (the only phone available in Lumsden at the time). Nita called the Newtown post mistress to inform Muriel's mother, and also then forwarded the message to Ralph "at sea".

Marriage Notes for KIMBERLEY GIBBONS and GLENN TEMPLEMAN:

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Sung Min Jung (his third ceremony since he became a Minister). The bridal party included Matron of Honor Tracey Kean, junior bridesmaid Chelsea Kean, and bridesmaids Carina Jardine, Karen Sheppard, Emily Gibbons, and Darleen Kelloway; Best Man Kevin Robbins, Groomsmen Duke Dyke, Glen Humphries, Vince Gibbons, and Todd Stokes. The groom and the bride's father wore seal skin vests and ties made by Vogue Furriers, St. John's. The organist was Beverly Fifield. Rick Abbott of Musgrave Harbour sang two solos. The reception was held at the Seagull Lounge, Wesleyville; about 375 people attended, the biggest wedding to be held at the Seagull to that time. The weather was sunny and cold (reached about minus 7 Celsius on Friday night), with a small sprinkling of snow on the ground. On Sunday, there was more snow, followed by heavy rain and wind, which made for a hard drive back to St. John's for those visiting for the wedding. All arrived home safely.
